presence of family members, friends, and relatives of both the petitioners and the said marriage has been registered in Marriage Certificate No.HMR/NEGAMAM/46/2021 at SRO, Negamam.There is no child born out of the wedlock.

2. The petitioners submit that ever since the date of their marriage, there was no cordial relationship between each other and they tried their level best to solve the misunderstandings between them and in fact all their attempts proved futile. There was no consensus of mind between the petitioners. Further, the petitioners realized that there was no love or affection between them and they were unable to adjust and tolerate with each other in spite of the advices of elders, friends and well-wishers. The petitioners submit that the since there were various misunderstandings between them, ever since the date of marriage despite several attempts to live together the 2nd petitioner after losing all her hope got separated from the 1st petitioner on 25.08.2021.

3. The petitioners submit that ever since separation i.e 25.08.2021, the mediators of both families through several meetings tried for an amicable settlement to resolve their misunderstandings, but all their attempts went in vain. The petitioners submit that there is no chance for reunion between them and there is no possibility of uniting and living together ever again. Hence, they have no other option except to seek for the relief of dissolution of the marriage that took place between them on 25.02.2021, from this Hon'ble Court.

4. The petitioners submit that they can lead their life in future peacefully if this Hon'ble Court grants divorce to them, since all possible efforts for reunion had already been taken place and the same has failed miserably and thus, there is absolutely no possibility of being reunited. Further, the articles including jewels, utensils and other Srithanas presented by parents of the 2ndpetitioner were returned by the 1st petitioner to the 2nd petitioner. So also, the jewels presented by 1st petitioner to 2nd petitioner were also returned by 2nd petitioner to the 1st petitioner. Thus, at present there is no claim against each other. The 2nd petitioner is hereby waiving her right of maintenance for her future.

5. The petitioners submit that there is no collusion between them in filing the present petition. The petitioners further submit that they are living separately for more than 2 ½ years before the date of filling this application.

6. The petitioners submit that they had mutually agreed to dissolve the marriage and the decision for mutual divorce was taken by their own free decision, voluntarily and of their own accord and not by any undue influence, threat, fear or coercion.

7. The petitioners submit that there are no other petitions of any similar nature filed or pending before this Hon'ble Court or any other courts.

8. The cause of action for this petition arose on 25.02.2021, when the marriage between them took place at "LBR. Thirumana Mandapam, Vinayagapuram,Vilankuruchi Road, Coimbatore" on subsequent dates, when misunderstanding arose between them within six months of marriage, on 25.08.2021, when they got separated and on subsequent dates when no fruitful result arrived despite several meetings for an amicable settlements by family and friends of both petitioners and all this cause of action arose at Coimbatore also which is within the jurisdiction of this Hon'ble Court.

9. The petitioners submit that the marriage between them took place at Coimbatore District, Tamil Nadu and both the petitioners are residing at Coimbatore. Hence this Hon'ble Court has got jurisdiction to entertain this petition.
